The Fund’s Forms N-Q are available on the SEC’s Web site at <http://www.sec.gov>. The Fund’s Forms N-Q may also be reviewed and copied at the SEC’s Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. Information on the operation of the Public Reference Room may be obtained by calling 1-800-SEC-0330.

Disclosure of Expenses (Unaudited)

Shareholders of this Fund incur ongoing costs, consisting of management fees and other Fund expenses. The following example is intended to help you understand your ongoing costs of investing in the Fund and to compare these costs with similar costs of investing in other mutual funds. If shares are redeemed within 90 days of purchase from the Fund, the shares are subject to a 2% redemption fee. Additionally, IRA accounts will be charged an $8.00 annual maintenance fee. The example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested at the beginning of the period and held for the entire period from October 1, 2018 to March 31, 2019.

The first line of the table below provides information about actual account values and actual expenses. In order to estimate the expenses a shareholder paid during the period covered by this report, shareholders can divide their account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6) and then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading entitled “Expenses Paid During the Period.”

The second line of the table below provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on the Fund’s actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Fund’s actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balance or expenses paid by a shareholder for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in the Fund and other funds. To do so, compare the 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in other funds’ shareholder reports.

Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs, such as redemption fees or IRA maintenance fees described above and expenses of the underlying funds. Therefore, the second line of the table is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative cost of owning different funds. In addition, if these transactional costs and expenses of underlying funds were included, your cost could have been higher.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - WIRELESS FUND

March 31, 2019

1.) ORGANIZATION

Wireless Fund (the "Fund") is a non-diversified series of the PFS Funds (the "Trust"), an open-ended management investment company. Prior to March 5, 2010 the Trust was named Wireless Fund. The Trust was organized in Massachusetts as a business trust on January 13, 2000 and may offer shares of beneficial interest in a number of separate series, each series representing a distinct fund with its own investment objectives and policies. The Fund, under normal market conditions, invests at least 80% of its assets in the securities of companies engaged in the development, production, or distribution of wireless related products or services. As of March 31, 2019, there were eight series operating in the Trust. The Fund's primary investment objective is to seek long-term growth of capital.

2.) SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Fund is an investment company and accordingly follows the investment company accounting and reporting guidance of the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification Topic 946 Financial Services - Investment Companies. The financial statements are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). The Fund follows the significant accounting policies described in this section.

SECURITY VALUATION

All investments in securities are recorded at their estimated fair value, as described in Note 3.

SHARE VALUATION

The net asset value per share (the "NAV") is generally calculated as of the close of trading on the New York Stock Exchange (the "Exchange") (normally 4:00 p.m. Eastern time) every day the Exchange is open. The NAV is calculated by taking the total value of the Fund's assets, subtracting its liabilities, and then dividing by the total number of shares outstanding, rounded to the nearest cent. The offering price and redemption price per share is equal to the net asset value per share, except that shares of the Fund are subject to a redemption fee of 2% if redeemed within 90 days of purchase. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2019, proceeds from redemption fees were $101.

DISTRIBUTIONS TO SHAREHOLDERS

Distributions to shareholders, which are determined in accordance with income tax regulations, are recorded on the ex-dividend date. The treatment for financial reporting purposes of distributions made to shareholders during the year from net investment income or net realized capital gains may differ from their ultimate treatment for federal income tax purposes. These differences are caused primarily by differences in the timing of the recognition of certain components of income, expense, or realized capital gain for federal income tax purposes. Where such differences are permanent in nature, they are reclassified in the components of the net assets based on their ultimate characterization for federal income tax purposes. Any such reclassifications will have no effect on net assets, results of operations, or net asset values per share of the Fund. As of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2019, the following adjustment was recorded and was primarily attributed to the reclassification of net investment loss.

Paid in Capital	($19,160)
Total Distributable Earnings	$19,160

FEDERAL INCOME TAXES

The Fund's policy is to continue to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code that are applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute all of its taxable income to shareholders. Therefore, no federal income tax provision is required. It is the Fund's policy to distribute annually, prior to the end of the calendar year, dividends sufficient to satisfy excise tax requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. This Internal Revenue Code requirement may cause an excess of distributions over the book year-end accumulated income. In addition, it is the Fund's policy to distribute annually, after the end of the fiscal year, any remaining net investment income and net realized capital gains.

The Fund recognizes the tax benefits of certain tax positions only where the position is "more likely than not" to be sustained assuming examination by tax authorities. Management has analyzed the Fund's tax positions, and has concluded that no liability for unrecognized tax benefits should be recorded related to uncertain tax positions taken on returns filed for open tax years. The Fund identifies its major tax jurisdictions as U.S. Federal and State tax authorities; however the Fund is not aware of any tax positions for which it is reasonably possible that the total amounts of unrecognized tax benefits will change materially in the next twelve months. The Fund recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax benefits as income tax expense in the Statement of Operations. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2019, the Fund did not incur any interest or penalties.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with GAAP, which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of increases and decreases in net assets from operations during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

OTHER

The Fund records security transactions based on a trade date. Dividend income is recognized on the ex-dividend date, and interest income, if any, is recognized on an accrual basis. The Fund uses the specific identification method in computing gain or loss on the sale of investment securities. Withholding taxes on foreign dividends have been provided for in accordance with the Fund's understanding of the applicable country's tax rules and rates.

The Fund may invest in real estate investment trusts ("REITs") that pay distributions to their shareholders based on available funds from operations. It is common for these distributions to exceed the REITs taxable earnings and profits resulting in the excess portion of such distribution to be designated as return of capital. Distributions received from REITs are generally recorded as dividend income and, if necessary, are reclassified annually in accordance with tax information provided by the underlying REITs.

EXPENSES

Expenses incurred by the Trust that do not relate to a specific fund of the Trust are allocated to the individual funds based on each fund's relative net assets or another appropriate basis.

3.) SECURITIES VALUATIONS

The Fund utilizes various methods to measure the fair value of most of its investments on a recurring basis. GAAP establishes a hierarchy that prioritizes inputs to valuation methods. The three levels of inputs are:

Level 1 - Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Fund has the ability to access.

Level 2 - Observable inputs other than quoted prices in active markets included in level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. These inputs may include quoted prices for the identical instrument on an inactive market, prices for similar instruments, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, yield curves, default rates and similar data.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability, to the extent relevant observable inputs are not available, representing the Fund's own assumptions about the assumptions a market participant would use in valuing the asset or liability, and would be based on the best information available.

The availability of observable inputs can vary from security to security and is affected by a wide variety of factors, including, for example, the type of security, whether the security is new and not yet established in the marketplace, the liquidity of markets, and other characteristics particular to the security. To the extent that valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised in determining fair value is greatest for instruments categorized in level 3.

The inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, for disclosure purposes, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement falls in its entirety, is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

A description of the valuation techniques applied to the Fund's major categories of assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis follows.

Equity securities (common stocks, including ADRs). Equity securities generally are valued by using market quotations, but may be valued on the basis of prices furnished by a pricing service when the Adviser believes such prices accurately reflect the fair value of such securities. Securities that are traded on any stock exchange or on the NASDAQ over-the-counter market are generally valued by the pricing service at the last quoted sale price. Lacking a last sale price, an equity security is generally valued by the pricing service at its last bid price. Generally, if the security is traded in an active market and is valued at the last sale price, the security is categorized as a level 1 security, and if an equity security is valued by the pricing service at its last bid price, it is generally categorized as a level 2 security. When market quotations are not readily available, when the Adviser determines that the market quotation or the price provided by the pricing service does not accurately reflect the current fair value, or when restricted securities are being valued, such securities are valued as determined in good faith by the Adviser, subject to review of the Board of Trustees (the "Trustees" or the "Board") and are categorized in level 2 or level 3, when appropriate.

Money market funds. Shares of money market funds are valued at net asset value provided by the fund and are classified in level 1 of the fair value hierarchy.

In accordance with the Trust's good faith pricing guidelines, the Adviser is required to consider all appropriate factors relevant to the value of securities for which it has determined other pricing sources are not available or reliable as described above. There is no standard method for determining fair value, since fair value depends upon the circumstances of each individual case. As a general principle, the current fair value of an issue of securities being valued by the Adviser would appear to be the amount which the owner might reasonably expect to receive for them upon their current sale. Methods which are in accordance with this principle may, for example, be based on (i) a multiple of earnings; (ii) a discount from market of a similar freely traded security (including a derivative security or a basket of securities traded on other markets, exchanges or among dealers); or (iii) yield to maturity with respect to debt issues, or a combination of these and other methods.

The following table summarizes the inputs used to value the Fund's assets measured at fair value as of March 31, 2018:

Valuation Inputs of Assets	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Common Stocks	$4,733,450	$0	$0	$4,733,450

Total	$4,817,947	$0	$0	$4,817,947

Refer to the Fund's Schedule of Investments for a listing of securities by industry. The Fund did not hold any level 3 assets during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2019.

The Fund did not invest in any derivative instruments during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2019.

4.) INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT

Value Trend Capital Management, LP (the "Adviser"), manages the investment portfolio of the Fund, subject to policies adopted by the Trust's Trustees. Under the Management Agreement, the Adviser, at its own expense and without reimbursement from the Trust, furnishes office space and all necessary office facilities, equipment and executive personnel necessary for managing the Fund. The Adviser also pays the salaries and fees of all officers and trustees of the Trust who are also officers, partners, or employees of the Adviser. The Adviser pays all operating expenses of the Fund, with the exception of taxes, borrowing expenses (such as (a) interest and (b) dividend expenses on securities sold short), brokerage commissions and extraordinary expenses and any indirect expenses, such as expenses incurred by other investment companies in which the Fund invests. For its services, the Adviser receives a fee of 1.95% per year of the average daily net assets of the Fund. As a result of the above calculation, for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2019, the Adviser received management fees totaling $81,096. At March 31, 2019, the Fund owed $7,352 to the Adviser.

5.) RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Jeffrey R. Provence, of Premier Fund Solutions, Inc. (the "Administrator") also serves as trustee/officer of the Fund. Also, control persons of Value Trend Capital Management, LP serve as a trustee and officers of the Trust. These individuals receive benefits from the Adviser resulting from management fees paid to the Adviser of the Fund.

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2019, the Trustees who are not interested persons of the Fund received Trustees' fees of $1,500 each, for a total of $4,500, plus travel expenses from the Adviser of the Fund. Under the Management Agreement, the Adviser pays these fees.

6.) PURCHASES AND SALES OF SECURITIES

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2019, purchases and sales of investment securities other than U.S. Government obligations and short-term investments aggregated $3,412,155 and $3,190,884, respectively. Purchases and sales of U.S. Government obligations aggregated $0 and $0, respectively.

7.) TAX MATTERS

For federal income tax purposes, the cost of investments owned at March 31, 2019 was $3,385,577. At March 31, 2019, the composition of unrealized appreciation (the excess of value over tax cost) and depreciation (the excess of tax cost over value) on a tax basis was as follows:

Appreciation	(Depreciation)	Net Appreciation (Depreciation)
$1,441,510	($9,140)	$1,432,370

The tax character of distributions was as follows:

	Year ended March 31, 2019	Year ended March 31, 2018
Ordinary Income:	$ 0	$ 0
Long-term Capital Gain:	196,800	0
	$ 196,800	$ 0

As of March 31, 2019 the components of distributable earnings (accumulated losses) on a tax basis were as follows:

Other Accumulated Losses	$ (27,693)
Undistributed Long-Term Capital Gains	1,022,385
Unrealized Appreciation on Investments – Net	1,432,370
	$2,427,062

As of March 31, 2019, the primary difference between book basis and tax basis was the tax deferral of wash sales. As of March 31, 2019, other accumulated losses included deferred late year ordinary losses of $9,169 and deferred post-October losses of $18,524.

8.) CONCENTRATION OF SECTOR RISK

If a Fund has significant investments in the securities of issuers in industries within a particular sector, any development affecting that sector will have a greater impact on the value of the net assets of the Fund than would be the case if the Fund did not have significant investments in that sector. In addition, this may increase the risk of loss of an investment in the Fund and increase the volatility of the Fund's NAV per share. From time to time, circumstances may affect a particular sector and the companies within such sector. For instance, economic or market factors, regulation or deregulation, and technological or other developments may negatively impact all companies in a particular sector and therefore the value of a Fund's portfolio will be adversely affected. As of March 31, 2019, the Fund had 25.08% of the value of its net assets invested in stocks within the Services - Prepackaged Software sector.

9.) SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Subsequent events after the date of the Statement of Assets and Liabilities have been evaluated through the date the financial statements were issued. Management has concluded that there is no impact requiring adjustment to or disclosure in the financial statements.

(UNAUDITED)

APPROVAL OF THE CONTINUATION OF THE MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

On March 5, 2019 the Board of Trustees (the "Board" or "Trustees") for the Wireless Fund met to consider the renewal of the Management Agreement (the "Management Agreement"). In approving the Management Agreement, the Board considered and evaluated the following factors: (i) the nature, extent and quality of the services provided by Value Trend to the Wireless Fund; (ii) the investment performance of the Wireless Fund; (iii) the cost of the services to be provided and the profits to be realized by Value Trend and its affiliates from the relationship with the Wireless Fund; (iv) the extent to which economies of scale will be realized as the Wireless Fund grows and whether the fee levels reflect these economies of scale to the benefit of shareholders; and (v) Value Trend's practices regarding possible conflicts of interest.

In assessing these factors and reaching its decisions, the Board took into consideration information furnished for the Board's review and consideration throughout the year at regular Board meetings, as well as information specifically prepared and/or presented in connection with the annual renewal process, including information presented at the Meeting. The Board requested and was provided with information and reports relevant to the annual renewal of the Management Agreement, including: (i) information regarding the services and support provided to the Wireless Fund and its shareholders by Value Trend; (ii) assessments of the investment performance of the Wireless Fund by Value Trend; (iii) commentary on the reasons for the performance; (iv) presentations addressing Value Trend's investment philosophy, investment strategy, personnel and operations; (v) compliance and audit reports concerning the Wireless Fund and Value Trend; (vi) disclosure information contained in the registration statement of the Wireless Fund and the Form ADV of Value Trend; (vii) information on relevant developments in the mutual fund industry and how the Wireless Fund and/or Value Trend are responding to them; and (viii) a memorandum from Counsel that summarized the fiduciary duties and responsibilities of the Board in reviewing and approving the Management Agreement, including the material factors set forth above and the types of information included in each factor that should be considered by the Board in order to make an informed decision. The Board also requested and received various informational materials including, without limitation: (i) documents containing information about Value Trend, including financial information, a description of personnel and the services provided to the Wireless Fund, information on investment advice, performance, summaries of Wireless Fund expenses, compliance program, current legal matters, and other general information; (ii) comparative expense and performance information for other mutual funds with strategies similar to the Wireless Fund; and (iii) benefits to be realized by Value Trend from its relationship with the Wireless Fund. The Board did not identify any particular information that was most relevant to its consideration to approve the Management Agreement and each Trustee may have afforded different weight to the various factors.

1. Nature, Extent and Quality of the Services Provided by Value Trend

In considering the nature, extent, and quality of the services provided by Value Trend, the Trustees reviewed the responsibilities of Value Trend under the Management Agreement. The Trustees reviewed the services being provided by Value Trend to the Wireless Fund including, without limitation: the quality of its investment advisory services (including research and recommendations with respect to portfolio securities); its process for formulating investment recommendations and assuring compliance with the Wireless Fund's investment objective, strategies, and limitations, as well as for ensuring compliance with regulatory requirements; its coordination of services for the Wireless Fund among the service providers and the Independent Trustees; its efforts to promote the Wireless Fund and grow its assets; and its provision of a Chief Compliance Officer to the Wireless Fund. The Trustees noted Value Trend's continuity of, and commitment to retain, qualified personnel and its commitment to maintain its resources and systems; the commitment of Value Trend to finding alternatives and options that allow the Wireless Fund to maintain its goals; and Value Trend's continued cooperation with the Independent Trustees and Counsel for the Wireless Fund. The Trustees evaluated Value Trend's personnel, including the education and experience of its personnel. They also considered Value Trend's decision to hire an experienced technology analyst to assist with managing the Wireless Fund's portfolio. After reviewing the foregoing information and further information in the materials provided by Value Trend (including Value Trend's Form ADV), the Board concluded that, in light of all the facts and circumstances, the nature, extent, and quality of the services provided by Value Trend were satisfactory and adequate for the Wireless Fund.

2. Investment Performance of the Wireless Fund and Value Trend

In considering the investment performance of the Wireless Fund, the Trustees compared the short and long-term performance of the Wireless Fund with the performance of funds with similar objectives managed by other investment advisers, as well as with aggregated peer group data and category averages. It was noted that information on the Fund's Morningstar category, the U.S. Fund Technology category (the "Category") and the Communications category, were both included for comparative purposes. The Trustees noted that Value Trend did not manage any other clients with objectives and strategies like the Wireless Fund. As to the performance of the Wireless Fund, the Trustees considered how the Wireless Fund's performance compared to the average performance of funds included in the Category, Communications category and to a group of funds of similar size derived from the Category and the Communications category (the "Peer Group"). Although not the determining factor in the Trustees' considerations, this information assisted the Trustees in concluding to approve the Management Agreement by a measure of how the Wireless Fund compares to other similarly managed funds. The performance data from the Category, Communications category and Peer Group are for periods ended December 31, 2018. The Trustees noted that for 1-year, 3-year, 5-year and 10-year periods, the Wireless Fund outperformed the Communications category but underperformed relative to the Category. It was noted that Wireless Fund outperformed its Peer Group for the 1-year, 3-year, 5-year and 10-year periods ended December 31, 2018. The Trustees also compared the Wireless Fund's performance to the S&P 500® Index for the 1-year, 3-year, 5-year and 10-year periods ended December 31, 2018, noting that the Fund trailed the S&P 500® Index for the 1-year and 10-year periods but outperformed for the 3-year and 5-year periods. They also performed the same comparison to the NASDAQ Composite Index, finding that the Wireless Fund trailed the NASDAQ Composite Index over all the noted periods. The Trustees discussed the differences between the S&P 500® Index, NASDAQ Composite Index and the Wireless Fund. After discussing the investment performance of the Wireless Fund further, as well as reflecting on Value Trend's experience managing and providing services to the Wireless Fund, and other relevant factors, including the addition of a new co-portfolio manager, the Board concluded, in light of all the facts and circumstances, that the investment performance of the Wireless Fund was satisfactory.

3. Costs of the Services to be provided and profits to be realized by Value Trend

In considering the costs of the services to be provided and profits to be realized by Value Trend from the relationship with the Wireless Fund, the Trustees considered: (1) Value Trend's financial condition and the level of commitment to the Wireless Fund by Value Trend; (2) the asset level of the Wireless Fund; (3) the overall expenses of the Wireless Fund; and (4) the nature and frequency of advisory fee payments. The Trustees reviewed information provided by Value Trend regarding its profits associated with managing the Wireless Fund, noting that Value Trend was profitable in regard to the Wireless Fund but only nominally so. The Trustees also considered potential benefits for Value Trend in managing the Wireless Fund. The Trustees then compared the fees and expenses of the Wireless Fund (including the management fee) to the Peer Group and the combined Morningstar Technology and Communications category. Although not the determining factor in the Trustees' considerations, this information assisted the Trustees in concluding to approve the Management Agreement by a measure of how the Wireless Fund compares to other similarly managed funds. The Trustees reviewed the fees under the Management Agreement compared to the Peer Group, noting that the management fee of 1.95% was the highest management fee in the Peer Group and the combined Technology and Communications category. They performed the same comparison as it relates to the Wireless Fund's expense ratio, noting that the Fund's expense ratio was higher than the average expense ratios for the Peer Group and combined Technology and Communications category. The Trustees discussed the size of the Wireless Fund and how it compared to average size of funds in the Peer Group and the combined Technology and Communications category. The Trustees recognized the expense ratio was on the high end of the range but it was not the highest in the Peer Group or combined Technology and Communications category. They also recognized that Value Trend is responsible under the Management Agreement for paying most of the operating expenses of the Wireless Fund. Based on the foregoing, the Board concluded that the fees to be paid to Value Trend by the Wireless Fund and the profits to be realized by Value Trend, in light of all the facts and circumstances, were fair and reasonable in relation to the nature and quality of the services provided by Value Trend.

4. Economies of Scale

The Trustees next considered the impact of economies of scale on the Wireless Fund's size and whether management fee levels reflect those economies of scale for the benefit of the Wireless Fund's investors. The Trustees considered that while the management fee remained the same at all asset levels, the Wireless Fund's shareholders had experienced benefits from the fact that Value Trend was obligated to pay certain of the Wireless Fund's operating expenses which had the effect of limiting the overall expense ratio of the Wireless Fund. In light of its ongoing consideration of the Wireless Fund's asset levels, expectations for growth in the Wireless Fund, Value Trend's commitment to consider adding fee breakpoints as the Fund grows, and fee levels, the Board determined that the Wireless Fund's fee arrangements, in light of all the facts and circumstances, were fair and reasonable in relation to the nature and quality of the services provided by Value Trend.

5. Value Trend's Practices Regarding Possible Conflicts of Interest and Benefits to Value Trend

In considering Value Trend's practices regarding conflicts of interest, the Trustees evaluated the potential for conflicts of interest and considered such matters as the experience and ability of the advisory personnel assigned to the Wireless Fund; the basis of decisions to buy or sell securities for the Wireless Fund; and the substance and administration of Value Trend's code of ethics. The Trustees also considered disclosure in the registration statement of the Wireless Fund related to Value Trend's potential conflicts of interest. The Trustees noted that although an affiliate of Value Trend provides administrative services to the Wireless Fund, as well as the other series portfolios of the Trust, and that the principals of Value Trend derived benefits from that relationship with the Trust - the Trustees concluded that the principals of Value Trend had demonstrated a history of openness and complete disclosure regarding this relationship. Based on the foregoing, the Board determined that Value Trend's standards and practices relating to the identification and mitigation of possible conflicts of interest were satisfactory.

Next, the Independent Trustees met in executive session to discuss the continuation of the Management Agreement. The officers of the Trust and certain other attendees were excused during this discussion.

After further review, discussion, and determination that the best interests of the Wireless Fund's shareholders were served by the renewal of the Management Agreement.
